EVENTS / NEW ENGLAND WARRIOR BENEFIT

Top military and business leaders descended on Boston on July 3 to honor and support wounded and fallen US Special Operations troops and their families at the New England Warrior Benefit. US Senator Scott Brown, Fallon Company CEO Joseph F. Fallon, Massachusetts State Senator Jack Hart, City of Boston Police Commissioner Edward Davis, and City of Boston Commissioner of Veterans Services Francisco Urena were among the distinguished guests who attended the Fallon Family Charitable Foundation fundraiser, which benefitted five benevolent organizations that serve Special Operations families. American Idol's Scotty McCreery performed.
