

BUSINESS IN BRIEF: Louis Boston heads to the South Boston waterfront

The Patriot Ledger

Posted Oct 16, 2009 @ 11:20 AM

QUINCY —

Louis Boston leaving Newbury Street for S. Boston waterfront

BOSTON – Upscale clothing retailer Louis Boston is moving from its longtime Newbury Street digs to the South Boston waterfront next spring. The Fallon Co. and Louis Boston owner Debi Greenberg reached a lease agreement for about 20,000 square feet at Fan Pier, which is being developed by Fallon. Louis Boston is expected to occupy a temporary space until a custom-designed structure can be finished. Fallon also recently announced that law firm Fish & Richardson will lease 124,000 square feet in the 18-story office building under construction there